

CONCLUSIONS OF THE TECHARS SEMINAR HELD IN VAGGERYD 29-11-2012

TEACHING ENGLISH

Teachers compared curricula, textbooks, methods, exams.

CONCLUSIONS:

- Curricula, teaching school programmes are very similar, teachers did not find serious differences
- All partners use English textbooks with similar content only Swedish have their own Swedish textbooks. Their content is focused on reading literature, speaking and grammar.
- Teaching methods are close as well. Teachers use pair and group work, focus on active skills speaking, writing. They do not use many games.
- In each country there are state exams, only terms of them are different, they depend on the organization of the school year.

Teaching English carries many similarities. All participants agreed that the work in the project implementation will improve learners language skills.

TEACHING IT

Teachers compared curricula, software.